Although the weekdays since Pentecost have been back to Ordinary Time, now that we have celebrated the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, our Sundays return to Ordinary Time as well. On this Tenth Sunday we return to Mark's gospel. In the first part of the passage, Jesus is accused of being Beelzebul (i.e., Satan), because he is casting out demons from those who are possessed. Jesus responds: "How can Satan drive out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand." Later in the passage, Jesus is told that his mother and brothers and sisters were outside asking for him. Jesus: "Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." The Church reminds us of the importance of being faithful to God's will in our lives as disciples. We all have lifelong calls from God to which we should be faithful (i.e., holy orders, consecrated life, marriage, even committed single life), but we also have daily opportunities to respond to others with mercy, compassion, kindness, generosity, charity. These opportunities are also ways for us to faithfully do God's will.

Later this week, our eighth graders will be celebrated at their graduation Mass, and then they will receive their diplomas as graduates of St. Luke School. We thank the parents for their sacrifices to send their children to Catholic school. We are also grateful to the administration, faculty, and staff of our school for their commitment to Catholic education. Some of our graduates have been in our school since "Tiny Tots;" others joined the class in more recent years. As they all complete our program of studies, we congratulate them on their accomplishments in the classroom, in service to others, and in living the life of faith. While parents often are seeking academic excellence and a safe environment for their children, a parish community has a vested interest in forming young Catholics who will practice their faith, contribute to the community and to the world with their God-given talents and abilities, and help to build the Body of Christ, the Church. May God bless the graduates of St. Luke School!

As you know, we have purchased a new statue of St. Anthony for our church. Every year, we pray a 13-week novena in preparation for his feast on June 13. Until now, we had a small and almost hidden statue of St. Anthony at the main entrance of the church; now, a beautiful and more sizable statue will be placed in the left-hand apse of the church, taking the place that has held a statue of Mother Seton. We also have a devotion to Mother Cabrini here at St. Luke, and Claudia Morelli has lent the statue to us for the novena to Mother Cabrini in November in recent years. She has asked me to keep the statue here at St. Luke. Mother Cabrini will join Mother Seton in our main entrance vestibule. Both of these saints dedicated their lives to welcoming foreigners and the less fortunate, so they will greet all who enter our church with their welcome and blessing. Finally, I have also purchased a statue of Carlo Acutis. Carlo died at 15 years of age in 2005, and he had a great love for the Eucharist. He used his computer skills to create a website providing information about Eucharistic miracles around the world. Just last month, Pope Francis approved a miracle attributed to Blessed Carlo, which puts him on the path to canonization later this year. His statue depicts him wearing sneakers, khakis and a polo shirt, and he is holding a cell phone in his pocket. As the first millennial saint, he is a great role model for the young people of our community. I encourage parents and grandparents to pray to him for his intercession for your children and grandchildren. Teach them to pray to him, too! I am accepting offerings to offset the cost of the Carlo Acutis statue. If you are interested in contributing, please place your offerings in the collection basket or drop it off at the rectory. Next Sunday at the noon Mass, Bishop Chappetto will bless our new statues before they are placed around the church. St. Anthony, Mother Seton, Mother Cabrini, and Blessed Carlo Acutis ... pray for us!

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

Planning Ahead

Parish Staff Members are working on making plans for the next year's calendar of events.

All parish groups are invited to submit their calendar requests by June 24th to be included in the upcoming schedules.

Remember God's Will When You Prepare Your Will

While we easily remember to provide for our family when planning our estate, it is also important to remember our "family in faith" as well.

When planning your last will and testament, please consider remembering St. Luke Parish. Some parishioners leave a fixed dollar amount; others determine a percentage of their assets to leave as a legacy to the parish that nourished them and their family for many years.
