My pilgrimage to Italy begins today. As you know, I lived in Rome for ten years, and so the Eternal City is a second home to me. Over the next two weeks we will be in Rome, Assisi, Loreto, San Giovanni Rotondo (Padre Pio), Pompeii and Cassino. Italy is beautiful this time of year, and I'm sure the pilgrims will enjoy the opportunity to visit some very holy places like the tombs of St. Peter, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Padre Pio, St. Benedict and St. Scholastica, as well as the many special sites in Rome and in other places in Italy. I am particularly looking forward to visiting the tomb of soon-to-be Saint Carlo Acutis while we are in Assisi. You can be sure of my prayers for all of you throughout the next two weeks. At the end, I will extend my visit for one day so I can attend the diaconate ordination of Paulo Salazar, a Brooklyn seminarian who was at Cathedral Seminary House of Formation in Douglaston when I was the vice rector there. God-willing, Paulo, along with Callistus, Juan, and the rest of their classmates, will be ordained to the priesthood on June 28, 2025.

Every year, we celebrate St. Padre Pio with a procession between St. Luke and St. Mel, followed by Mass. We also have an annual dinner-dance to raise money to support the hospital founded by St. Padre Pio in San Giovanni Rotondo, Italy. His feast day is tomorrow, Monday, September 23rd. Because I will be away on pilgrimage, we will have the procession from St. Luke to St. Mel on Friday, October 11th. The dinner-dance will be held on October 6th. It's a blessing for our community to honor this great saint every year, and to help promote the important work he began to bring healing and hope to the sick.

Speaking of the sick, next Saturday our parish will celebrate a Mass for the Anointing of the Sick in the Pastoral Center at 12:00 Noon. Our young people preparing for Confirmation will be on hand to help, and a simple luncheon will be served after Mass. As always, I like to remind parishioners that the sacrament is no longer Extreme Unction, but a sacrament that can be received in preparation for surgery, at the onset of a serious illness, and even when we are seniors with the normal aches and pains of getting older. If a family member is beginning hospice care, please have a priest come to the facility or to the family home to offer the hope and healing of this wonderful sacrament while the family member is able to spiritually benefit from the opportunity to go to confession, be anointed, and receive Holy Communion. Please respond either by calling the rectory or returning the form in the bulletin so we can properly prepare.

The Radio Bingo fundraiser will take place next Saturday evening. It promises to be a fun evening of music, dancing, laughs, and prizes. Tickets must be sold in advance, so please return the form in the bulletin as soon as possible, or use the QR code to register online. I am glad to see such community events returning to St. Luke. I hope that this will be the beginning of other opportunities to bring people together to have fun with one another and to support our wonderful parish.

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

Join us in front of the church!

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

September 15, 2024 • Isaiah 50:4-9

Isaiah talked about his relationship with God. What did he say?

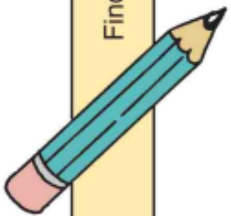

Connect the dots and read Isaiah's words along the way.

1 "The
2 Sovereign
3 Lord
4 has
5 opened
6 my
7 ears,
8 and
9 I
10 have
11 not
12 been
13 rebellious;
14 I
15 have
16 not
17 drawn
18 back."

James described a situation that might happen.
This situation teaches us a lesson. What is faith by itself?

Find and circle the underlined words.

Suppose a brother
or sister is without clothes and daily food.
If one says to them, "Go in peace, keep warm and well fed," but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it?

In the blanks, write the letters that are not circled in the word search. You will discover the lesson James teaches us.
