As I write this (on Monday, September 30th), I have just celebrated Mass for the pilgrims at the Shrine of Our Lady of Pompeii in the shadow of Mount Vesuvius. Back in 1872, a lawyer came to the plain of Pompeii to handle the affairs of a local Countess. While there, he and his wife began to spread the Rosary among the sharecroppers and farmers of the area. They inaugurated a confraternity of the Rosary and needed a picture of the Blessed Mother before which the group could pray the Rosary every day. A local monastery donated an image that was acquired from a junk-shop dealer in Naples; it portrayed Our Lady of the Rosary with St. Dominic and St. Catherine of Siena. Soon, miracles were reported and pilgrims frequently came to visit Pompeii.

Eventually, a new church was built and the image was restored several times, the last time during the Pontificate of Pope St. Paul VI, who said, “just as the image of the Virgin has been repaired and decorated, so may the image of Mary that all Christians must have within themselves be restored, renovated, and enriched.” As we begin the month of October, the month of the Holy Rosary, may we be restored, renovated, and enriched through our Blessed Mother’s intercession.

We have been truly blessed during our pilgrimage. We visited all four of the major basilicas in Rome and were privileged to celebrate Mass in St. Paul Outside-the-Walls and St. Mary Major. During the Wednesday audience with Pope Francis, the pilgrims from “St. Luke, Whitestone” were welcomed and blessed. Next, we travelled to Assisi, where we celebrated Mass at the tomb of St. Francis of Assisi, and we prayed before the tomb of soon-to-be Saint Carlo Acutis. On our way to San Giovanni Rotondo, we made a brief visit to Lanciano to visit the site of a Eucharistic Miracle that goes back to the 8th century. In San Giovanni Rotondo we celebrated Mass at an altar frequently used by Padre Pio, and then had a chance to visit his tomb. Today, on our way to Pompeii, we stopped at a cave dedicated to St. Michael the Archangel. After Pompeii we will make our way to Monte Cassino, the burial place of the twins St. Benedict and St. Scholastica. On Thursday, I will be at St. Peter’s Basilica for the ordination of Paulo Salazar to the diaconate, and then I will fly back on Friday. Of course, if you are reading this, I will already be back! A pilgrimage is not a vacation, but it is a wonderful opportunity to visit holy places and to be inspired by the lives of the saints and special and important places for our Catholic faith. I know several parishioners are interested in visiting the Holy Land if there is ever a peaceful time to return, but there are many other shrines and holy places all around the world that might be worthwhile to consider for our parish in the future. Let me know!

Tomorrow is the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, and October is the month of the Rosary. Later this month we celebrate the feast of St. Luke. There is a tradition that says that St. Luke was an artist and used the top of a table made by Jesus in his father’s shop to paint an image of Mary. As she posed for the painting, she told Luke stories of the life of Jesus, which he then included in his gospel. As parishioners of St. Luke parish, I pray that we can always remain close to Mary, especially through praying the Rosary.

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

Maria Goretti Network

East Coast Chapter Meeting Online
contact nyc@mgoretti.org

Maria Goretti Network exists to help survivors of any type of abuse (physical, sexual, mental, emotional, financial, etc.) find support and healing in the spirit of St. Maria Goretti.

Abuse is never your fault and you are not alone. Steps to forgiveness can set you free.

MGN Maria Goretti Network is a non-profit 501c3 Lay Catholic Apostolate www.mgoretti.org

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community.

We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty.

We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned,
Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender.

We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom.

We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace.

We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

How to Pray the Rosary

Joyful Mysteries

—Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

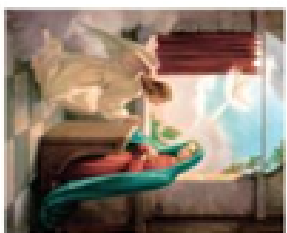

The Visitation

Let us pray: O God, whose Only Begotten Son, by his life, Death, and Resurrection, has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech thee, that while meditating on these Mysteries of the most holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through the same Christ our Lord.
