Parishes of St. Luke and St. Mel
Whitestone, NY

March 24, 2025

Dear Parishioners of St. Luke and St. Mel,

First of all, as your pastors, we want to express our gratitude for your support and encouragement. In addition to our parish responsibilities, we both have diocesan positions that require us to serve in ministries outside the parish. We are grateful for your patience and understanding.

Under the leadership of our diocesan bishop, parishes are beginning the process of collaboration and partnership, and others are ready to merge as a response to changing demographics, reduced contributions, and fewer priests available for parish ministry. In addition to these efforts, Bishop Brennan directed all parishes to review their Mass schedules and propose changes that take into account church capacity, current attendance, and the number of priests available to celebrate Mass. We were also directed to look to our neighbors to make sure that we are giving helpful choices of Masses to people who live in the larger community around our parishes.

Currently, St. Luke and St. Mel have identical Mass schedules; the only difference is that St. Luke offers an evening Mass on Sundays. In both parishes, both the 7:30 AM and the 9:00 AM Italian Masses have significantly lower Mass attendance than the other Masses on the weekend. With that in mind, we plan to change our Mass schedules as of July 1, 2025 as follows:

St. Luke

Saturday – 4:30 PM

Sunday

8:30 AM bilingual Mass

10:30 AM

12:30 PM

4:30 PM (not July/August)

St. Mel

Saturday – 5:00 PM

Sunday

8:00 AM bilingual Mass

10:00 AM

12:00 PM

These schedule changes were approved by the Vicar General's Office, and all parishes will continue to monitor Mass attendance and consider future changes based on local needs. As your pastors, we pray that all our parishioners will be able to adjust to these changes and continue to cooperate with us as we spread the Good News of Jesus in our preaching, in our words, and in our deeds.

Know of our prayers as we continue to make our way through these Lenten days to the joy of the Easter season.

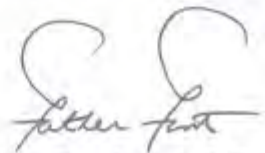

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Very Rev. John J. Costello
