From the time of my ordination 37 years ago, the celebration of All Saints Day has been very special to me. A community of consecrated women, the Apostolic Oblates, lived in the convent at Our Lady of Miracles, and they were dedicated to promoting the Universal Call to Holiness through the Pro Sanctity Movement. Their founder, Servant of God Guglielmo Giaquinta (whom I had the privilege of meeting twice) was a newly ordained priest in Rome right after the devastation of World War II, and he gathered young people to support and encourage them as they tried to rebuild their lives. He reminded them that they were called to be holy, and he was influential during the Second Vatican Council to have a chapter of Lumen Gentium, the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, promote the Universal Call to Holiness of all people of faith. Father Giaquinta was ordained the Bishop of Tivoli on All Saints Day in 1968, and the Pro Sanctity Movement still continues his good work here in the United States, in Italy, India, Canada, Belgium, and in several other countries around the world. Next weekend we will welcome members of the Pro Sanctity Movement here at St. Luke during the 12:30 Mass, and they will host a reception afterwards in the Pastoral Center. As Bishop Giaquinta used to say: All saints, all brothers and sisters!

Of course, after All Saints Day on November 1st, the Church celebrates All Souls Day on November 2nd. Grieving the loss of loved ones is never easy, but to have the support of our faith, along with family members, friends, and fellow parishioners who accompany us, is a great comfort to us. We will celebrate Mass at 12:00 PM and at 7:30 PM on Monday to remember all the faithful departed. Later this month, on November 14th at 12:00 PM, we will have a special Mass to pray for all those whose funerals were celebrated here at St. Luke since last All Souls Day. We ask parishioners to bring photos of their loved ones, no larger than 8 x 10, to place on tables near the altar during that Mass.

This year on Veteran's Day the PPC is sponsoring our first Friendsgiving, an opportunity to gather seniors and other parishioners for a community celebration in anticipation of Thanksgiving. There may be some who cannot join family and friends because of an inability to travel, so we hope that this celebration can be a nice way for our parish to enter the spirit of the season.

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello
