We hear the Parable of the Talents from Matthew's gospel this weekend. One of the key insights into the parable is that each servant is given talents according to his ability. The master expects that each of them will make good use of the talents entrusted to their care while he is gone. Upon his return, the master asks each of the servants to give an accounting of what they were able to accomplish in his absence. When the first two give their reports, the master responds by calling them, "my good and faithful servant," indicating that they have a personal relationship with the master and can be entrusted with great responsibilities. When the final servant simply returns the talent he was given with no profit, he is called wicked and lazy and useless and is cast out into the darkness. This parable reminds us that God gives all of us talents according to our ability, and He expects that we will put our talents to good use. Too often we hide our talents and don't contribute to the community in the way that we should. As we approach Thanksgiving, we often recognize how truly blessed we are in what we have received from the Lord. At the same time, this is the month of All Souls, and so we also recognize that we will one day need to be accountable before the Lord. The principle of Christian stewardship teaches us that we should generously give of our time, talents, and treasure as faithful disciples of the Lord. As the liturgical year draws to a close in these next two weeks, we should prayerfully ask the Lord, "How am I doing?" Are you ready for the Lord's response to that question?

I am happy to report that the appeal to replace our church organ has raised $31,430 so far, which means we are about 1/3 of the way there! What a great start! We anticipate that the new organ will be installed in time for Easter, which means that our celebrations for First Holy Communion, Confirmation, and weddings scheduled for the spring will all be enhanced by a wonderful new instrument. I express my thanks to all those who have made this initial generous response, and I encourage other parishioners to join us in providing for the future of St. Luke Parish! Next Sunday, November 22nd, is the feast of St. Cecilia, the patron saint of sacred music and organ builders. We pray for her intercession as our new organ is being constructed, that our parish liturgies will be enriched for many years once the new organ is installed next March.

Next Sunday, November 22nd, at the 8:30 AM Mass, we are happy to welcome Archbishop Christophe Zakhia El-Kassis, the Permanent Observer to the United Nations for the Holy See. After Mass there will be a reception in the Msgr. Tosi Pastoral Center hosted by Radici to celebrate Italian culture. Thank you to Pasquale Masullo for organizing this event for our community. All are welcome!

The first few episodes of Season 6 of The Chosen are now available on Amazon Prime. For those who would like to view the episode with others, we will show it in church on Monday at 7:00 PM.

With love and prayers,
Fr. John Costello

Dear Friends of the Prayer Group "Saint Pio of Pietrelcina" of Whitestone,

I express my heartfelt gratitude for your donation of €7.200 for the benefit of Padre Pio's Hospital, La Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza.

Thanks to the continued generosity of devoted groups like yours, we are able to carry forward the mission entrusted to us by Saint Pio of Pietrelcina. The ongoing work to expand and enhance La Casa Sollievo is a testimony to faith in action, and a concrete expression of the Gospel message of compassion and hope.

Your support contributes to a project that Saint Pio held close to his heart: a home of relief, not only for physical suffering but for spiritual healing as well. In this way, you become active participants in his legacy of mercy and love.

Please know that I am remembering you in my prayers at the tomb of Saint Pio, asking his intercession for your intentions and for all those dear to you. May the Lord continue to bless your apostolate and grant you the joy in your mission for the good of souls.

With deep gratitude and in union of prayer, I remain,
Fraternally yours in Christ,

Don Lorenzo Simonelli
